

Jeffrey Clark Teacher of the Year

We would like to congratulate our 2015-16 Educational Services Professional, Mrs. Joy Strehle!

Mrs. Strehle, a speech and language therapist at the Jeffrey Clark School was named the Educational Services Professional of the Year. Mrs. Strehle develops specific lesson plans for each of her students and works tirelessly to meet their individual goals. She maintains parental communication through journals, emails and phone calls. She is an outstanding resource to colleagues and is always willing to share her wealth of knowledge concerning typical development and ways to meet student goals.

Mrs. Strehle is extremely knowledgeable regarding how language affects education, and is a wonderful asset to our district's teachers regarding expanding on skills like oral language, reading comprehension, and so much more. In the words of one of her with colleagues, " with almost 20 years of working with students, she has worked miracles in the lives of children and their families."

Mrs. Strehle is a wonderful example of the phenomenal service professionals that represent the Jeffrey Clark School!
