

Miss Gaughan's Newsletter

Week of December 3rd -December 7th

Reading & Language Arts

- We are taking a break from Journeys for the month of the December. We will be doing a novel study on Shiloh. More information regarding this is coming home today.
- Spelling/Grammar - We will be doing grammar and spelling from Journey's lesson 22. (Since we won't get that far this year) The skills are vccv and vcv patterns in words for spelling and negatives for grammar. The quizzes for these skills will be Friday,, December 7th.
- In writing, we will be working on a research stimulation task.

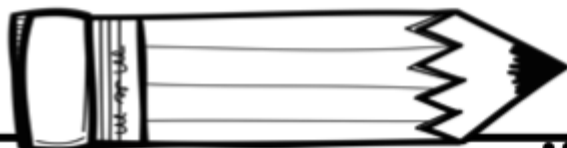

Reminders

- The first trimester ends on Tuesday, December 4th.
- Give a Gift Family Night is Thursday, December 6th at 6pm.
- The district will be sponsoring a food drive from 12/3 through 12/12. All donations will be provided to the Evangelical United Methodist Church in Clarksboro.

Math

- We are testing chapter 4 will be Tuesday, December 4th.
- We will begin chapter 5 on Wednesday. This chapter focuses on factors, multiples, and patterns.
- We will be practicing x10 math facts this week. The quiz will be Friday, December 7th.

Science/Social Studies

- We will continue chapter 3 in Social Studies this week. This chapter focuses on the Lenape.
- We will have a vocabulary quiz on Tuesday, December 4th.
 - We will be testing Monday, December 10th.
 - The Diorama project is due Friday, December 21st.