

JEFFREY CLARK SCHOOL PRESENTS ONE SCHOOL ONE BOOK 2019

Hooray for May! May 13 - May 17, students and staff in B-2 will read Humphrey's Mixed-Up Magic Trick by Barbara Birney.

Thanks to The East Greenwich Home & School Association, each student has been provided with his/her very own copy of the book! Be sure to ask your child about the story!

ACTIVITIES FOR THE WEEK INCLUDE:

Monday, May 13: Kick off the week with a welcome video about our One Book Jeffrey Clark title. Teacher read aloud: Chapter 1.

Tuesday, May 14: WEAR YOUR WORDS!
Wear a shirt or pants with words!
Trivia questions and teacher read aloud: chapter 2.

Wednesday, May 15: WHAT DO YOU WANT TO BE WHEN YOU GROW UP? SHARE YOUR DREAMS WITH DRAWINGS AND/OR WORDS. TRIVIA QUESTIONS & TEACHER READ ALOUD: CHAPTER 3.

Thursday, May 16: Bring A Story to Life-- Dress Up as a Book Character!* Trivia questions and teacher read aloud -- start chapter 4 but STOP at page 82!

*Please note: costume/outfit must be connected to a book. Students who opt to dress up should bring either a copy of the book, or a photocopy of the book's cover with them to school today.

Friday, May 17: Do you believe in magic? It's magic tricks day! Trivia questions and teacher read aloud: finish the story!

