Great Kindness Challenge Recap

We celebrated the Great Kindness Challenge during the last week of January. This was a great kick-off to introducing and reviewing our next Buzzworthy trait of kindness.

At the beginning of the Great Kindness Challenge, an act of kindness was committed in the cafeteria at the Jeffrey Clark School creating a "Kind Scene". Students worked with their teachers to complete kindness challenges to obtain clues about the suspects. There was a great reveal at the end of the week. Congratulations to Mrs. Townes' class for completing the most challenges throughout the week!

Black History Month Community Read Alouds

In the month of February, we will honor Black History Month by inviting different community members to read books to students. Students will be able to enjoy different titles highlighting black authors and figureheads.

Kindness Choice Boards

Kindness choice boards were sent home on Monday, January 1/29. They are due on March 6th. Buzzworthy students will be honored at the March board meeting.

World Read Aloud Day- February 7th

The Jeffrey Clark School will be participating in the World Read Aloud Day on February 7th. The purpose of the day is to celebrate the power of reading aloud to create a community and amplify new stories, and to advocate for literacy as a foundational human right.

World Read Aloud Day is celebrated by millions of people in over 170 countries. More information about the day will be shared soon!

A Note from the Nurse

Over the last few months, the spare clothing supply in the nurse's office has gotten smaller and smaller.

If you have any clothing that was loaned since September, please remember to return them to the nurse's office. Any donations or returns are appreciated!
