Grade 5 Summer Reading Assignment

Write 3 Reader Response Notebook (RRN) responses using the format below. Complete at least a row or column on the bingo board. Submit both your responses and the bingo board to your teacher.

Writing a Strong Reader Response Notebook Paragraph (RRN)

SENTENCE 1

- Tell us what book you read this week to start your paragraph.   (Ex. This week, I read three exciting chapters in Bridge to Terabithia).

SENTENCES 2-7

- Tell us your own ideas or opinions about a part you read in your book. This is your chance to share all the things YOU are thinking.   Use one or more of the Reader's Notebook Stems to help you.

    - The most exciting part of the book was…
    - I was surprised when…
    - I predict…
    - I don't like this book because…
    - This character reminds me of….

- After each YOU idea, write down a sentence or two from the TEXT (your book) that shows why you felt or thought something. These are your text details and evidence.   Here are some ways to start them:

    - For example,
    - In the story, it says...
    - The author writes...

SENTENCE 8

- Have a good ending sentence to wrap things up and sum up what you wrote.

    - These are some ways to start your ending sentence:
        - In conclusion,
        - Overall,
        - All in all,
        - To summarize,

Put all these sentences together into a paragraph! Don't forget to indent your first sentence.
